The salary of the employees of the Institute shall be paid on or before seventh day of the month. The salary of the employee shall be subjected to statutory deductions at source, viz. Income tax, etc.

1. Definitions

Holiday: Holiday means a day declared by a notification of the Institute to be closed day for all employees except those otherwise specifically asked to attend the Institute.

Salary: salary means the monthly remunerations drawn by an employee including basic pay, dearness allowance, personal pay, special pay, HRA, etc.

Average Pay: Average pay means the average salary of last 10 calendar months.

Vacation Employee: Vacation Employee means that employee who is entitled to summer/winter vacations.

Retirement: The term refers to superannuation after attaining the age of 65 years. It has all other connotations as applied to the government dept. including pre-mature retirement.

Release: The term refers to termination of employment in accordance with terms of employment.

2. General

Leave is a privilege and not a right: It may be refused or revoked by the authority empowered to grant it. It would, however, generally be granted unless the exigency of service is so demanding.

Leave Application: The leave application shall be submitted on prescribed form on-line via Digii well in advance and shall be got sanctioned before availing of the leave. The faculty members shall make alternate arrangements/internal adjustments among the faculty members of his/her any other department to keep the students engaged.

No leave can commence unless it has been sanctioned: Mere submission of leave application does not authorize an employee to avail the leave applied for. Availing of leave without getting the same sanctioned makes the employees liable to disciplinary action besides penal deductions.

Acceptance of alternate employment/engaging in trade/business etc. causing him/her monetary/personal gain is an offence, and the employees shall refrain from the same.

No leave will be sanctioned on telephone except in case of extraordinary circumstances/sudden illness, etc. This shall, however, be regularized on joining the duty in writing. One can apply for leave within three days of joining duty.

Continued absence of more than three working days, or repeated irregularity without intimation of any kind may render an employee liable to disciplinary action including termination of services besides penal deduction.

4.2 Types of Leave: -

Sl.	Type	Max. Allowed
01.	Casual leave (CL)	12 per year
02.	Sick leave (SL) (Min 3 days and Medical Certificate required issued by the Hospital)	06 per year

PART – 1 : POLICY1 Policy Statement

It is the policy of GNIOT Institute of Management Studies (PGDM Institute) to recruit and retain Staff of the highest caliber with the qualifications and experience necessary to provide an efficient and effective service to the Institute. This is achieved through the application of a detailed and transparent recruitment procedure and through the application of all relevant employment legislation. The short-listing, interview and recruitment process follows best practice in relation to equal opportunities. Selection for appointments is based on merit recommended by the Selection Committee.

2 Policy Purpose

- 2.1 The aim of the policy is to outline the relevant steps in the recruitment process and to assign individual responsibilities for each of these steps. Also, the purpose of this policy is to specify the main principles for GIMS external recruitment and define Institute rules, processes and practices, from attracting potential applicants to the first day of newcomer integration.

3 Policy Scope

- 3.1 This policy is intended for all staff who are involved in the recruitment process within GIMS.
- 3.2 This policy outlines all procedures concerned with recruitment. It is to ensure that all aspects of recruitment are carried out in a proper and efficient manner.

4 Description of Terms

GIMS	Means GNIOT Institute of Management Studies
Staff	Means Faculty (an employee who is appointed to teaching students), Technical Staff (an employee serving in a laboratory and assisting faculty members for functioning of laboratory) and Administrative Staff
Applicant	Means candidate applied for any vacancy in the Institute
AICTE	Means All India Council for Technical Education, Delhi
Governing Body	Means Regulatory and Approving Authority of the Institute for policies and approvals.

1. General Principles

GIMS is committed to guaranteeing a strong and equitable level of services to all recruitment stakeholders:

- Candidates: GIMS guarantees equity of treatment, process transparency, respect of data privacy, respect of indigenous rights, fair compensation package and first-class health & safety conditions.
- Employees: GIMS is committed as a priority to promote and manage internal mobility, and to guarantee equal opportunities for all its employees as such internal application is evaluated first.
- Authorities: GIMS respects and participates in the highest standards definition recommended by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE),
- Management: GIMS HR is committed to serving staffing Institution requirements, and to guarantee equity across the organization and full process visibility from request to integration of the new employees.

2. Roles & Responsibilities

- 2.1 All staff involved in recruitment must adhere to this policy.
- 2.2 The Head of the Human Resource Division (HR) will amend this policy in the event of changes to legislation with the prior approval of the Academic Council.
- 2.3 HR will ensure this policy is accessible.
- 2.4 The Lead Person will liaise with HR in the recruitment process, including input into the selection of the Interview Panel.

3. Cadre Ratio, Qualifications and Pay Scales

The Institute will follow AICTE Regulations on Pay Scales, Service Conditions and Minimum Qualifications for the Appointment of Teachers and other Academic Staff and measures for the maintenance of standards in Technical Education – Degree Regulation, 2019 and subsequent amendments/new Regulations issued by AICTE from time to time. However, preference will be given to candidates fulfilling the AICTE norms and having Research and Industry Experience.

PART – 2 : PROCEDURE

4. Decision to Recruit

The recruitment process to fill a new or existing vacant post will not commence without the approval of the Head of the Institution.

5. Preparation for Job Description & Person Specification

- 5.1 In advance of a vacant post being advertised, the H.R will prepare a person specification and job description (as per guidelines of AICTE) to support the recruitment and selection process and ensure the best possible outcome to meet the needs of people we support.

5.1.1 Job Request Process

Sl.	Particular
1.	H.R. Deptt. will issue a notice to Executive Director as appointed for forwarding their staff requirements (if any) for the upcoming Session.
2.	Executive Director will require to submit their staff requirement (if any) along with job description and specialization to the H.R. Deptt. along with the proposed teaching/administrative load and allocation of faculty & Staff (existing or new appointment) for the upcoming semester
3.	On receipt of requirement the H.R. Committee, consisting of following members, will review/analysis the load and finalize the vacancies for the upcoming Session, as per AICTE guidelines and also finalize the Institute nominated External Experts for different departments: (i) Director : Chairman (ii) Executive Director : Member (iii) HR : Member

6. Preparation & Placement of Advertisement

- 6.1 Based on the approved vacancies, HR will be responsible for preparation and placement of the advertisement in the newspaper/institute website/and other social networks by giving minimum 10 days for submission of application through “Career Link” available in the Institute web-site.

HR takes the requirement and prepares the Job Description of the position and uses the sources like

- Print Media
- Job Portals
- References
- GIMS Portal
- Consultants
- Social Networking sites like LinkedIn, Facebook etc.

- 6.2 The advertising must be done in a cost-effective manner, the budget and the amount to be spent on advertising is pre-decided and approved by HR. The ambition for a robust recruitment process should be such that it does not turn out to be a very costly affair.

7. Confirmation of Interview Dates

The H.R in consultation with members of Interview Panel will finalize the dates for the interview.

8. Short-Listing Process

- 8.1 The criteria to be used in short-listing prospective Candidates are agreed in advance of the vacancy being advertised and are transparent and directly relevant to the post.
- 8.2 All applications will be screened for eligibility using essential qualifications, experience and skills criteria that are outlined in the person specification.
- 8.3 The first stage in the short-listing process is the screening stage, whereby applicants who do not have the required qualifications, or otherwise fail to meet the essential standard for the post, are eliminated.
- 8.4 The second stage is to reduce the number of qualified Candidates, if it is not practical to interview all applicants. This should be carried out by the Head of respective Department using clear and consistent criteria.
- 8.5 All applications for posts will be treated in strict confidence.

8.6 Screening of CVs GIMS norms:

1. Good Academic credentials from 10th till PG.
2. Academic Average 10th + 12th + UG+PG = above 60%
3. The first preference is given to the candidates who have high academic average.
4. Quality of Institutes and Universities to be given preference after step 3 defined above.
5. Quality of experience to be given importance.
6. Relevant Industry experience is calculated as half to bring it to the equivalence of teaching experience.
7. Experience less than 6 Months is not counted as teaching experience.
8. Experience in degree colleges or schools is not counted as teaching experience
9. Post PGDM/MBA experience is counted as teaching experience.
10. Based on the above criteria, the department of HR completes screening of the CVs and screened CVs are sent to the relevant department for further screening by the department Heads.
11. The Department Head screens the CVs and mentions the reasons for shortlisting and not shortlisting the candidates.
12. The screened candidates get finally approved by the Director for inviting them for the interview.
13. The candidates are invited with a ratio of 1:5 i.e., for 1 position, first 5 candidates are invited. If they do not confirm, the next candidate is invited.

14. On the day of interview, the candidates are facilitated by department of HR.
 15. The decision of the selection committee on the day of interview is considered a final decision.
- 13 Correspondence to Short-Listed Interviewees
- 13.1 HR Department will be responsible for the preparation and transmission of all correspondence to be sent to those short-listed candidates for interview on or before minimum 10 days through e-mail/telephone calls. The correspondence should include the invitation to the interview, and the job description for the post.
14. Arrangements for Interview
- The H.R. will be responsible for organizing interviews on the scheduled dates. The H.R will be responsible for making all arrangements in the Interview Room for availability of stationery, writing board and hospitality.
15. Interview Panel
- 15.1 The Panel appointed to interview Candidates, will have the relevant knowledge, experience and skills to select the best possible Candidate to fill the vacancy.
 - 15.2 The H.R. will ensure selection/finalization of Interview Panel in consultation with H.R Committee and from the list of duly approved Subject Expert by the Governing Body.
 - 15.3 The Interview Panels must consist of the following members:
 - A. For Director Recruitment

It has been observed that number of candidates having industrial experience apply for the appointment of faculty. In order to give benefit of industrial experience to such candidates, guidelines followed are appended below: -

1. As a rule, every two years of industrial experience may be taken as an equivalent to one year of teaching experience. However, while deciding this equivalence, following parameters must be examined to moderate the number of years accordingly.
 - (a) Level of appointment in the industry e.g., Floor level/ Managerial level/ Sr. Executive level.
 - (b) Type and status of industry served e.g., Local /National /MNC/ Manufacturing/R & D.
2. The equivalence has to be decided at the time of Interview Board only. The decision of the Board needs to be mentioned clearly in the selection committee minutes and also shared with the candidate.
3. After joining the institute, there shall be no change in the status of seniority (for having industrial experiences) once decided at the time of appointment.

Submission of Relevant Documents, Certificates and Photographs by the candidate and forwarding of file at the time of appointment of a faculty/ staff member.

After the interview board, the file for the selected candidate is to be prepared. This file must possess following enclosures along with any other additional documents: -

- (i) Copy of minutes of Interview Board.
- (ii) Copy of Experience certificates (if applicable)
- (iii) Proof of last salary drawn (if applicable)
- (iv) Copy of Marks sheets & Certificates in support of academic qualification
- (v) Date of Birth Certificate
- (vi) Character Certificate
- (vii) Medical Certificate
- (viii) PAN Number (if available)
- (ix) Aadhar Card
- (x) Residence Proof
- (xi) Identity Proof (e.g., Voter ID Card, Driving license etc.)
- (xii) Passport size photographs (02 copies)
- (b) Hods/Deans/Deans'/ section Incharge will put up this file with a Note to the Director through Head HR. Head HR will carry out necessary checks/ verifications of the enclosed documents of the selected candidate and forward the file immediately to Director (after having been satisfied with the enclosed documents).

It is also brought out that the candidates are to be asked to join the institute only after obtaining the necessary approval of the Management members on the file. Only under the exceptional circumstances (considering urgency of situation), verbal approval from Management for joining of a specific candidate may be sought through Director before receipt of file.

Recruitment & Selection Policy for Director-level Posts

1. Vacancy Notification & Advertisement

- When a vacancy arises (or anticipated), institute management / governing body issues a public advertisement specifying job description, eligibility criteria (qualifications, experience, age, other requirements), application process, deadline.
- Advertisement is widely circulated on official websites, academic/management-education portals, newspapers or professional networks so that a broad pool of potential candidates (including both external applicants and nominations) is reached.
- A clear job description (role, responsibilities, deliverables) should accompany the ad, to ensure clarity and attract suitable candidates.

2. Formation of a Search-cum-Selection Committee (or Equivalent)

- A Search-cum-Selection Committee (or Selection Committee) usually comprising senior academic / External experts / governing-body members / domain experts must be constituted to oversee the process of evaluating and shortlisting candidates.
- The composition of this Committee should comply with institutional and/or government/governing-body rules (where applicable).
- The Committee may also accept nominations (from eminent people or internal stakeholders) besides applications submitted in response to advertisement.

3, Eligibility & Shortlisting Criteria

Typical eligibility criteria — but must be defined by the institute depending on scope:

- Academic credentials: Post-graduate degree / MBA / PGDM or equivalent; in many premier institutes, a PhD (or equivalent scholarly / professional standing) is preferred.
- Professional / administrative / academic experience: e.g. long teaching/research track record (professor level or senior academic), or substantial relevant industry/ corporate / management experience.
- Leadership and administrative capabilities: prior experience in organizational leadership, managing faculty/staff, institutional planning, strategic development, external partnerships.

4. Selection Process (Interviews / Assessment)

- The selection generally involves a panel interview including external experts, assessing academic vision, leadership qualities, plan for institute growth, management capabilities, etc.
- The final recommendation to appoint a candidate should come from the Search-cum-Selection Committee and must be formally approved by the Governing Body / appointing authority

5. Tenure, Contract & Terms of Appointment

- Director's appointment often for a fixed term under normal circumstances.
- Terms should include pay scale / benefits, reporting structure, roles & responsibilities, performance review mechanisms (mid-term or periodic), and conditions for renewal or premature termination.

CHAPTER – 9 – TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

9.1

Training Policy

GIMS believes in continuous development of human resources (Faculty & Staff). The institute focuses on following four areas for designing training objectives:

- Individual Objectives – help employees in achieving their personal goals, which in turn, enhances the individual contribution to an organization.
- Institute's Objectives – assist the Institute with its primary objective by bringing individual effectiveness.
- Functional Objectives – maintain the department's contribution at a level suitable to the institute's needs.
- Societal Objectives – ensure that an institute is ethically and socially responsible to the needs and challenges of the society.

The training objectives for faculty are as follows:

S. No.	Objectives	Focus Areas
1	Pedagogy: Principles & Hods/Deans of Teaching for Fresh New Joinees (Induction Training)	Institute's Objective
2	To raise the subject competence	Functional Objective
3	To develop Laboratory	Functional Objective
4	Enhance Research Competence	Functional Objective
5	To raise management Skills	Individual's and Institute's Objective
6	Professional Development – Up gradation in qualification/Certifications new technology: Career Development	Individual's Objective
7	Implementation of Consultancy	Functional Objective
8	General Training for Personality Grooming etc.	Individual's Objective
9	Institute Social Responsibility	Societal Objective

To meet the above objectives, GIMS provides training and development to faculty and staff by following methods:

- Faculties attend workshop and conferences – National/International
- Faculties participate in FDP's (Internal/External)
- Internal Trainings at departmental level.
- Training at Institute Level for Faculty & Staff

Training Procedure

1. The training needs are identified by various processes like:
 - Annual Appraisal (Self and Reporting Boss)
 - Based on the Institute's need – Inputs from Director Office/Market etc.
2. The training needs are compiled and categorized as follows:
 - Strategic Training Needs
 - Functional Training Needs
 - Behavioral Training Needs
3. Based on the above the area of training is identified (Soft Skills, HR, Policy, Administrative, Technical, Academics etc.)
4. Out of total training needs, the needs are prioritized
5. The internal/external trainer is identified, and duration of the program is decided
6. Based on the same, the training calendar is prepared for a semester and communicated to all for implementation.
7. The trainings are imparted and the attendance and feedback are collected for further improvement.
8. The feedback collected is shared with the trainer for further improvement.

Monitoring of Effectiveness of Training Imparted

1. Following outputs are monitored for effectiveness of training imparted like:
 - a) The improvement or decrease in student feedback.
 - b) The improvement in the result of the same subject – quality of result, clear pass %age, external average, number of back papers etc.
 - c) Increase/Decrease in the Annual Appraisal Rating – Department Head's remarks
 - d) HoD's/Deans assessment for various academic roles given to the faculty/staff–researcher/teacher/administrator etc.
2. The above inputs define that skills/competency required as per the job description/Key result areas are improved or decreased.

- If an employee decides to separate from an organization, he/she should submit resignation in writing to the Head of the department/Deans duly signed with the date.
- The Head of the department/Deans will discuss the same with the employee and submit the recommendation to the Director via the department of HR.

12.12E-mail Policy*1. General

E-mail is a critical mechanism for communications at GIMS. Use of GIMS electronic mail systems and services is a privilege, not a right, and therefore must be used with respect and in accordance with the rules, regulations, and policies of GIMS.

The objectives of this policy are to outline appropriate and inappropriate use of GIMS e-mail systems and services in order to minimize disruptions to services and activities, as well as to comply with applicable policies and laws.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all e-mail systems and services owned or operated by GIMS, all e- mail account users/ holders at GIMS (both temporary and permanent), and all Institute e- mail records.

3. Account Activation/Termination

E-mail access at GIMS is controlled through individual accounts and passwords. Each user of GIMS e-mail system is required to read and sign a copy of this E-Mail Acceptable Use Policy prior to receiving an e-mail access account and password. It is the responsibility of each user to protect the confidentiality of their account and password information. Substantial changes to this policy may require users to read and sign an updated copy of this Use Policy.

All staff and faculty at GIMS will receive an e-mail account.

All terms, conditions, and restrictions governing e-mail use must be in a written and signed agreement. E-mail access will be terminated when the e-mail account holder terminates his or her association with GIMS, unless other arrangements are made.

4. Rights and Responsibilities

The Institute often delivers official communications via e-mail. As a result, staff and faculty at GIMS with e-mail accounts are expected to check their e-mail in a consistent and timely manner so that they are aware of important Institute announcements and updates, as well as fulfilling organizational and role-oriented tasks.

5. Disclaimer

GIMS assumes no liability for direct and/or indirect damage arising from the user's use of GIMS e-mail system and services. Users are solely responsible for the content they disseminate. GIMS is not responsible for any third-party claim, demand, or damage arising out of use the GIMS e-mail systems or services.

6. User Responsibilities

E-mail users are responsible for mailbox management, including organization and cleaning. All faculty and staff must check their respective mail three times a day.

E-mail users are expected to remember that e-mail sent from the Institute's email accounts reflects on the Institute. Please comply with normal standards of professional and personal courtesy and conduct. Individuals at GIMS are encouraged to use e-mail to further the goals and objectives of GIMS.

7. Acceptable Use of GIMS e-mail systems include:

Communication with fellow employees within the context of an individual's assigned responsibilities;
Participation in educational or professional development activities.

Mass mailing for disseminating the official information to all GIMSians is to be done by approved authorities only (HoD's, DEAN(s) and functional Heads). They have to take the authorization from IT Operations department – Head to open the facility of mass mailing to all GIMS for the same for them. The mail received from an individual employee will be treated as official copy since the e-mail signature will be treated as individual's signature. It will be used as document for official purposes.

8. Inappropriate Use

GIMS e-mail systems and services are not to be used for purposes that could be reasonably expected to strain storage or bandwidth (e.g., e-mailing large attachments)

Individual e-mail use shall not interfere with others' use and enjoyment of GIMS e-mail system and services.

E-mail use at GIMS shall comply with all applicable laws, all GIMS policies, and all GIMS contracts. The individual employees are not authorized to mass mail any information to GIMSians or group of GIMS employees by using the short cut of applying cut-copy-paste the e-mail ID's of all GIMS employees and mailing the same keeping them in "To" or "cc" or "bcc".

The following activities are deemed inappropriate uses of GNIOT e-mail systems and services and are prohibited:

It is NOT ACCEPTABLE to:

- i. Use e-mail for illegal or unlawful purposes, including copyright infringement, obscenity, libel, slander, fraud, defamation, plagiarism, harassment, intimidation, forgery, impersonation, soliciting for illegal pyramid schemes, and computer tampering (e.g., spreading of computer viruses);
- ii. Use e-mail in any way that violates GIMS's policies, rules, or administrative orders, including, but not limited to, the GIMS Acceptable Use Policy.
- iii. View, copy, alter, or delete e-mail accounts or files belonging to GIMS or another individual without authorization.
- iv. Send unreasonably large e-mail attachments.
- v. Open e-mail attachments from unknown or unsigned sources.
- vi. Forge or attempt to forge email messages.
- vii. Disguise or attempt to disguise your identity when sending mail.
- viii. Send email messages using another person's email account.
- ix. Share e-mail account passwords with another person or attempt to obtain another person's e-mail account password. E-mail accounts are only to be used by the registered user.
- x. Make excessive personal use of GIMS e-mail resources. GIMS allows limited personal use for communication with family and friends, independent learning, and public service so long as it does not interfere with productivity, pre-empt any organizational activity, or consume more than a trivial number of resources. GIMS prohibits personal use of its e-mail systems and services for unsolicited mass mailings, non-GIMS commercial activity, political campaigning, dissemination of chain letters, and use by non-employees.

Note that attachments are the primary source of computer viruses and should be treated with utmost caution.

9. Reporting Misuse

Any allegations of misuse should be promptly reported to the person responsible for operating the GIMS e-mail systems by sending an e-mail to: admin.pgdm@gims.net.in. If you receive an offensive e-mail, do not forward, delete, or reply to the message. Instead, report it directly to the individual designated above.

10. Content Sensitivity and Disclosure

Use extreme caution when communicating confidential or sensitive information via e- mail. Keep in mind that all e-mail messages sent outside of GIMS become the property of the receiver. A good rule is to not communicate anything so that you wouldn't feel comfortable being made public. Demonstrate particular care when using the "Reply" command during e-mail correspondence to ensure the resulting message is not delivered to unintended recipients.

11. Failure to Comply

Violations of this policy will be treated like other allegations of wrongdoing at GIMS. Allegations of misconduct will be adjudicated according to established procedures.

12. Sanctions

Sanctions for inappropriate use on GIMS's e-mail systems and services may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

1. Temporary or permanent revocation of e-mail access.
2. Disciplinary action according to applicable GIMS policies.
3. Termination of employment and/or
4. Legal action according to applicable laws and contractual agreements

13. Best Practices

GIMS Group of Institutions considers email as an important means of communication and recognizes the importance of proper email content in conveying a professional image. Users should take the same care in drafting an email as they would for any other communication. Therefore, the Institute wishes users to adhere to the following email guidelines:

Writing emails:

- a) Write well-structured emails and use short, descriptive subjects.
- b) Institute's email style is informal. This means that sentences can be short and to the point. You can start your email with „Hi“, or „Dear“, and the name of the person. Messages can be ended with „Best Regards“. The use of Internet abbreviations and characters such as smileys, however, is not encouraged.
- c) Signatures must include your name, job title and Department.
- d) Users must spell all mail prior to transmission.
- e) Users must read official mails daily and reply/acknowledge the same maximum in 24 hours.
- f) Do not send unnecessary attachments. Compress attachments larger than 1 MB before sending them.
- g) Do not write emails in capitals.
- h) Do not use cc: or bcc: fields to send a mailing to multiple recipients.
- i) Only send emails of which the content could be displayed on a public notice board. If they cannot be displayed publicly in their current state, do not send the same
- j) Only mark emails as important if they really are important.

14. Declaration

I have read, understand and acknowledge receipt of the Email Policy. I will comply with the guidelines set out in this policy and understand that failure to do so might result in disciplinary or legal action.

GIMS Social Media Policy (For Faculty & Academic Staff)

Purpose

The purpose of this social media Policy is to provide clear guidelines to faculty and staff members of GNIOT Institute of Management Studies (GIMS) on the responsible, ethical, and professional use of social media. The policy aims to protect the reputation of the Institute, uphold academic integrity, and encourage constructive digital engagement.

Scope

This policy applies to all faculty members, visiting faculty, academic staff, and mentors associated with GIMS, covering both official and personal use of social media platforms such as LinkedIn, X (Twitter), Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, blogs, and other digital forums.

Guiding Principles

Faculty members are ambassadors of GIMS and are expected to uphold the Institute's values, ethics, and professional standards, maintain respect, dignity, and inclusiveness in online interactions, and use social media responsibly without compromising institutional interests.

Official Use of Social Media

Only authorized faculty or designated officials may create, manage, or post content on official GIMS social media handles. All official content must be accurate, respectful, and aligned with GIMS branding, vision, and communication guidelines. Academic announcements and achievements should be shared only after due approval.

Personal Use of Social Media

Faculty members may maintain personal social media accounts; however, personal opinions must not be presented as official views of GIMS. Faculty should avoid posting content that may harm the image, credibility, or interests of the Institute.

Professional Conduct Online

Faculty members shall not post confidential institutional information, engage in harassment or defamatory remarks, or publish misleading or unverified information related to GIMS.

Student Interaction on Social Media

Faculty should maintain professional boundaries with students on social media. Academic communication should preferably use official institutional channels. Student data or photographs must not be shared without written consent and approval.

Academic Freedom and Responsibility

GIMS respects academic freedom; however, faculty must express opinions responsibly, avoid political advocacy in the name of the Institute, and ensure scholarly accuracy.

Use of GIMS Name, Logo, and Identity

The GIMS name, logo, or identity must not be used for personal endorsement or commercial gain without approval.

Compliance and Monitoring

Violation of this policy may invite disciplinary action as per GIMS HR rules and service regulations.

Reporting Violations

Any misuse of social media affecting GIMS should be reported to the HR Department or Director's Office.

Policy Review

This policy shall be reviewed periodically and amended as required to align with evolving digital practices.
