Internal Complaint Committee

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) at GNIOT Institute of Management Studies (GIMS) has been constituted in accordance with the AICTE Regulations and based on the Supreme Court's Vishakha Guidelines and the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, to ensure a safe, inclusive, and harassment-free academic and professional environment.

The Committee aims to evolve a mechanism for the prevention and redressal of sexual harassment cases and other acts of gender-based violence in the institution. The objectives of the committee are:

Effective Policy Implementation

To implement the institutional policy on prevention, prohibition, and redressal of sexual harassment in letter and spirit through structured reporting mechanisms, timely inquiry, and systematic follow-up of complaints.

Prevention of Gender-Based Discrimination

To ensure a work and academic environment free from all forms of gender-based discrimination, harassment, and victimization for faculty, staff, students, and other stakeholders.

Confidential and Fair Redressal Mechanism

To provide a confidential, impartial, and time-bound grievance redressal mechanism ensuring natural justice, protection of complainants, and fairness to all parties involved.

Compliance with Legal and Regulatory Frameworks

To ensure strict adherence to AICTE norms, Vishakha Guidelines, and the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013, including proper constitution, functioning, and reporting by the ICC.

Protection Against Retaliation

To safeguard complainants, witnesses, and ICC members from retaliation, intimidation, or adverse consequences arising out of the complaint or inquiry process.

Monitoring, Documentation, and Reporting

To maintain accurate records of complaints, actions taken, and outcomes, and to submit statutory reports to competent authorities as required, ensuring transparency and accountability.

Promotion of Dignity and Respect

To foster a culture of mutual respect, dignity, and professional conduct across the institution, reinforcing zero tolerance towards sexual harassment.
