Embark on a Global Educational Journey to Dubai: Immerse Yourself in Culture, Business, and Sustainable Development:

As Dean, Post Graduate Program (PGP) at GIMS, I am proud to build on the commitment of the institute to global learning. Manifesting in international education, GIMS is charged to transform our students by valuing the life experiences that shape the identity of each one of them.. To provide a flavor of global best practices, our students are exposed to the 'International Immersion Programme (IIP)' at an international location, designed in collaboration with leading universities.

In the tradition of educating the student with International exposure, the certifications on Global Trade, Block Chain, Logistics & Supply Chain Management, amongst others, are organized for the students during the IIP. GIMS prompts students to develop vital skills such as increased self-efficacy, independence, and – most critically – an understanding of themselves from the outside in.

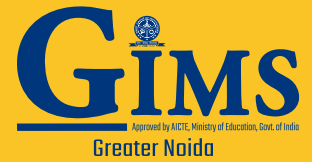

The mission of the program is to provide quality and global exposure to our students and to position our masters diploma and certificates PGDM course as a world class program. The contextual intelligence gained by an extensive immersion abroad is the hallmark of our PGDM program. The experience gained will serve our PGDM students with even greater expertise on how to navigate and succeed in an international marketplace as they are entering their new full-time positions following the course. We offer significant opportunities for our students to create new knowledge, prepare for careers inside and beyond the academy, and address the evolving needs of society. We are deeply committed to the work we do in broadening participation in higher education that leads to a more diverse and inclusive scholarly community.
