Global Immersion Program @GIMS

The students of GIMS have the opportunity to take part in a one or two-week long international immersion program. It includes visits to local companies and partner business schools, with time to visit local places of interest. The program represents important opportunities for professional growth, networking and team-working, as all experiences are shared and discussed with fellow students and met with management in the companies visited. It is innovatively designed to bring international exposure to the students with an academic feel. An international exposure of this kind not only expands the vision, but also augments the personality of management students. The refinement is all about a wide variety of people, wonderful places, different mannerisms and opportunities to broaden one's horizons. During the Immersion Program candidates visit companies, discuss strategic issues with managers. It is a great opportunity for the students to gain international experience without heavy personal investment as the immersion program is fully facilitated by the institute. It is an eye-opening experience that gives them a new perspective on markets, management and culture; a perspective that cannot be gained from a traditional classroom experience. The students get opportunity to meet with senior managers of medium to global sized businesses to discuss where business is going and how they have adapted to the challenges of a globally competitive environment is also invaluable. Global experience is a required part of the PGDM curriculum today. International Immersion Program at GIMS is designed to give students on-the-ground experience that goes beyond what can be learned in a classroom—widening their thinking and developing knowledge and skills to manage in a globalized economy. Such global study trips provide broad business and cultural exposure of a country to all the participants. The educational trip fulfills the mission of providing experiential learning that enhances classroom instruction. And, one can see two clear benefits. One is the “conceptual” benefit of broadening knowledge of global issues, management, and leadership issues, or of a country or industry. The other is “personal” benefit which revolves around exercising leadership, getting to know other students better, and having a meaningful and fun experience. And, for the students of GIMS, this study tour is often the most unforgettable experience of their lives!
