(2×15=30)

Reliance engineering is a manufacturing firm with about 160 employees. The founder of the business, Manoj, is not active now, and his son, Amit, is the person responsible for the business now. One of Amit's sisters, Ashwini, runs a small branch distribution office. Her husband, Arun works out of that office as a salesperson. There are two other people in the office.

Amit is reorganizing the business and planning to eliminate the two other office functions by moving them to the home office. Ashwini wants to hire her 21-year-old daughter, who has a degree, to fill the soon-to-be-created position of office assistant. From everything Amit understands, this is not the right thing to do. However, Ashwini cannot understand why. Amit has two sons about to leave college. His other sister, Veena, has one son, now out of college, and three daughters still in school. Amit is not yet sure who else might want to join the business, but one of his sons, who will graduate with an industrial engineering degree next year, has expressed some interest.

6(a) Is there a list of do's and don'ts regarding employment of family members in a family business?

6(b) Amit has not got down to documenting a family employment policy yet. Help him frame one.
