Proactive Solution is a skincare system to help those with acne. Proactive originally started out as being sold only through direct marketing, and the consumer had to enrol in membership in the Proactive Solution Clear Skin Club. However, now some large malls have kiosks selling Proactive Solution products without the club membership, but the prices are much higher. Proactive Solution has had one of the longest -running infomercials on television, and their product is also sold through magazine ads. Through these mediums, consumers can purchase the product directly by calling, mailing, or going through the Internet to submit an order.

- 4(a) The infomercials and print ads allow consumers to purchase directly from the ad itself. There is a mail -in coupon order form, a toll -free phone number, and a web address given in the print ad that states, "Call Now!" Some infomercials even state that "Calls received within the next 30 minutes will receive '2 Free Bonuses' when ordering." Name and describe the type of offer this is, and explain how it is different from the other type of offer and what better option you can suggest in the current scenario to promote and drive traffic in business.
- 4(b) In the era of Influencer Marketing what you think could the new scope of development that might company incorporates in promoting its products to the target audience with maximum reach, justify with relevant points.
