XYZ Boutique, a local fashion retailer specializing in sustainable clothing, aims to enhance its online presence and engage with customers through social media marketing. With a limited marketing budget and growing competition from online retailers, XYZ Boutique seeks to leverage social media platforms to showcase its unique offerings and connect with its target audience. The company faces the following major challenges:

Limited Brand Visibility: Despite offering high-quality sustainable clothing, XYZ Boutique struggles to gain traction and visibility in the crowded online fashion market.

Low Engagement: The boutique's social media channels have low follower engagement, with minimal likes, comments, and shares on posts.

Competing with Big Brands: XYZ Boutique faces stiff competition from larger fashion brands with bigger marketing budgets and established online presences.

However, the company's CEO believes that by leveraging strategic social media marketing tactics and emphasizing its unique value proposition of sustainability and ethical fashion, XYZ Boutique can overcome these challenges and carve out a distinct niche in the market.
